Announcement:

We appreciate the new awakening in the fruit industry. The nurserymen have suffered losses during the last four or five years to the extent that there are but few of us left to tell the tale.

There is and will be a call for trees for next spring's planting, and as there are few being grown in the state, we would advise those who expect to plant anything in this line the coming season to book their order as early as possible.

Our stock this year is as fine as we have grown in thirty years, and we believe the varieties and kinds are in keeping with the home and market needs. We have this stock to offer until sold, freight charges prepaid to points within 50 miles of nurseries, or to all points where cash accompanies order or before shipment.

Write us, or come and see us.
